Swarnamoyee Jogendranath Mahavidyalaya (SJM) and Prabhat Kumar College (PKC) recognize their strengths in research and education in one or more disciplines of arts, commerce and sciences, and their mutual interest in engaging themselves in academic collaboration. Therefore, both the college agreed to establish a programme for academic cooperation in the areas of mutual interest, and in accordance with terms and conditions set forth in this MoU.

A. Objectives

The goal is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for global experience, and to facilitate the advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity, best effort, mutual benefit, and frequent interactions with the following activities-

- to exchange information on research and educational programmes,
- to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes,
- to jointly organize short-term continuing education programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to jointly propose and engage in research or training programmes sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty participate therein,

Further, agreed that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be separately determined and agreed upon by the two institutions mutually.

B. Joint Sponsored Research, Development and Consulting

To help faculty members from the other institution to participate in research or development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be finalised out by mutual agreement between the both institutions.

C. Exchange of Faculty

To encourage collaborative activities between faculty from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to and or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at the each other's institution as per the existing norms. Terms and conditions for each visit or an assignment, including those concerning stipend, travel, and housing, name of the concerned faculty member will be worked out between the two institutions.

D. Student Exchange

Student exchange will be guided by the following principles

- a) Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- b) An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- c) The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module.
- d) The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

E. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

Agreed to help faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between the Institutions.

F. Intellectual Property

Both the institutions agreed to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis, and will be consistent with the officially laid down of IPR policies of the two institutions.

H. Others

This MoU is signed subject to approval of the respective academic/administrative bodies. It will remain valid till any of the parties chooses to withdraw from the linkage with a letter in writing and prior intimation. Any notice or other communication under this MOU shall be given in writing and delivered by hand or sent by post or facsimile.

transmission or e-mail. This MOU constitutes the agreement in principle to proceed and workout more detailed modalities to operationalize the same between the two Institutions.
