Report

The Annual Cultural Competition is held every year to offer the students of the college an opportunity to showcase their talent and participate in extra-curricular events in a healthy, competitive environment. This year the events took place 11 am onwards on 15.12.2022 and saw enthusiastic participation from all students. The events consisted of singing competition, dance competition, poetry recitation, extempore competition and painting competition. Each event was judged by three faculty members who evaluated the performances in an unbiased manner. The scores were calculated and results are declared on the same day. The faculty members of each Department judged the events and the results were declared after the completion of each event. Indoor games such as Carromboard tournament and Yoga competition were also held on this day by the Department of Physical Education. The winners will be awarded with certificates and books on the Annual Prize Distribution Ceremony.
