Annual Sports Meet 07.04.2022

Report

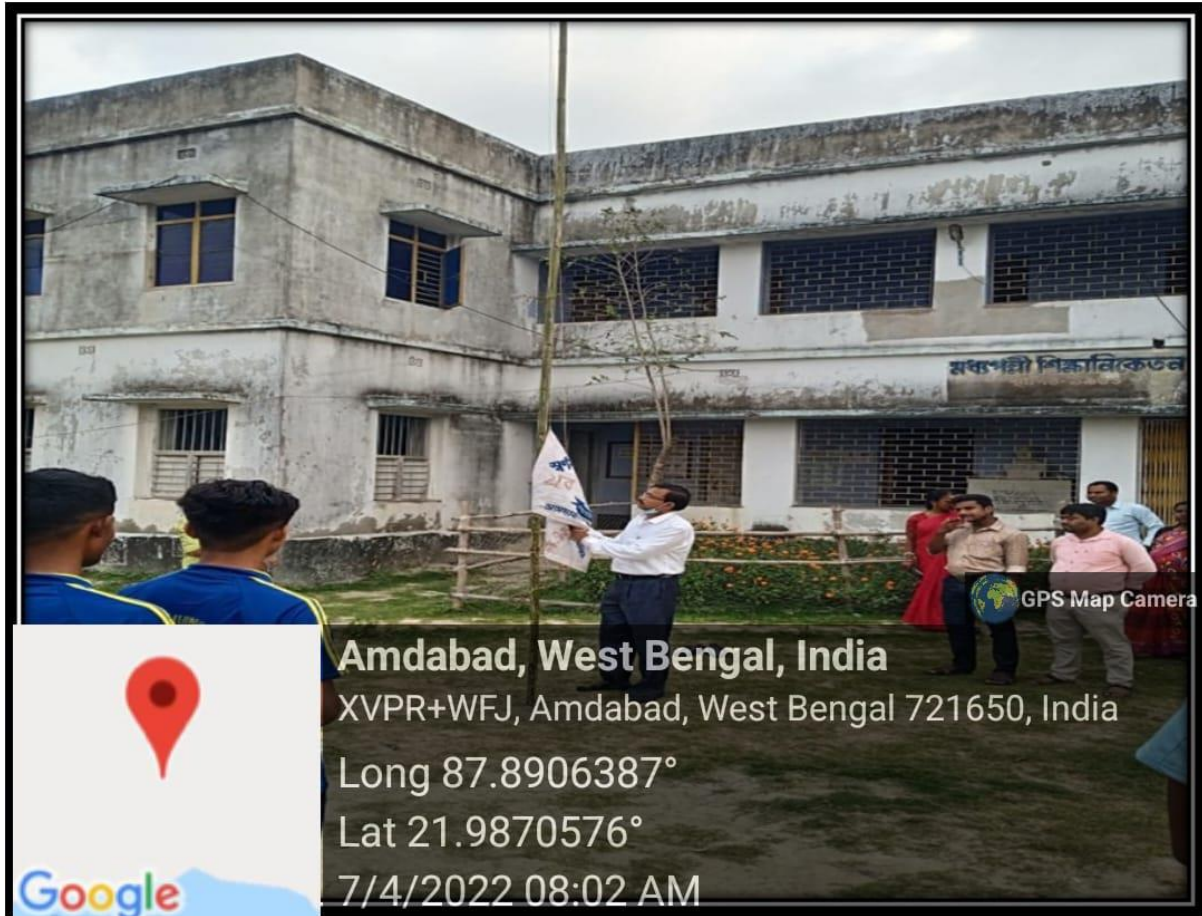

The Annual sports of the College is a two-day event is organized by the Sports Committee and the Physical Education Department of the college and is celebrated in a grand manner in the college grounds in winter every year. On that day the atmosphere of the college turns festive with the students showing great enthusiasm and energy. The college ground is decorated with placards, banners, flags etc. Many honorable guests and the members of the college Governing Body remain present in the programme. In 2022, the Indoor and Outdoor games were held on 07.04.2022, 7.30 pm onwards. The events began with the hoisting of the college flag by Dr Anindya Kishor Bhaumik, President of the Governing Body, along with the Principal Dr Ratan Kumar Samanta and other Governing Body Members and faculty members. Sanjay Samanta, the Head of the Physical Education Department and the Convener of the Sports Committee conducted the entire event. The Sports meet went on till 3.30 pm in the afternoon with 1 hour lunch break in between. Various sports and games were arranged for the students and many new records were made every time in long jump, 100 and 400 meters race. The faculty members and the non-teaching staff judged the events under the supervision of Sanjay Samanta, Head of the Department of Physical Education. The scores are calculated and results are declared on the same day. The winners are awarded with certificates and books on the Annual Prize Distribution Ceremony. The college provides refreshments to all on that day, and special food packets are handed out to the participants of the sporting events. First-aid kits are kept handy for any possible injuries and glucose drinks are given to each participant after the completion of the events.
