

Swarnamoyee Jogendranath Mahavidyalaya

At+P.O.: Amdabad, P.S.: Nandigram, Dist.: Purba Medinipur, PIN 721650

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

COURSE OUTCOMES OF HONOURS AND GENERIC ELECTIVE COURSES UNDER CBCS w.e.f. 2018-19

COURSE CODE	CREDITS	COURSE NAME	COURSE OUTCOME
CC1	6	Introduction to Sociology I	Learners' familiarity with the field of sociology, its history, and how it differs from other social sciences will be sharpened. The ability to think about and comprehend society via a sociological lens is really what this topic is all about.
CC2	6	Sociology of India I	Students will get a deeper understanding of rural social structure, the caste system, the agricultural economic system, and general social difficulties and challenges via this course, as well as pre- and post-British India's social structures.
CC3	6	Introduction to Sociology II	In this course, sociological theories that attempt to explain social phenomena are discussed. These theories provide a comprehensive viewpoint that assists in explaining various aspects of social life.
CC4	6	Sociology of India II	The purpose of this course is to provide an understanding of the dynamic process that is India, including the political elevation that has been met, religious tension or confrontation, and social difficulties. In essence, this region depicts the pre-British hegemonic movements, such as Dalit politics, communalism, ethnic movements, reformative movements, and so on.

COURSE CODE	CREDITS	COURSE NAME	COURSE OUTCOME
CC5	6	Political Sociology	The course introduces students to the Indian political system, including the constitution, the military system, the state and governance, power relations, and the political process. Students may also get an understanding of human rights, social justice, and the responsibilities of citizens, among other topics.
CC6	6	Sociology of Religion	This course introduces students to the foundations of society, rules for interacting with others, spirituality, and the need of maintaining personal connections. The progression of society from a religious to a positive/abstract to a scientific condition can also be imagined by students.
CC7	6	Sociology of Gender	Through the completion of this course, students will get acquainted with topics such as gender, sexuality, gender identity, gender crisis, exploitation, domestic abuse, and the position of women in society.
CC8	6	Economic Sociology	Students will learn about the economic structure of society, the mode of production, social relations based on commodity trade, behavioural patterns, the level of self-sufficiency in early societies, and the evolution of societies from pre-industrial to post-industrial eras.
CC9	6	Sociology of Kinship	Students will gain knowledge of primordial culture, the simple division of labour, ethnic customs and responsibilities, tag, and taboos through this course. In addition to providing a clear image of society's informal economic structure, this topic also depicts social relations.
CC10	6	Social Stratification	This course facilitates comprehensive understanding of social hierarchy, social roles and statuses, classifications of individuals according to profession, education, race, ethnicity, and other relevant factors. Social justice, inequality, role conflict, and other social concerns and challenges are all defined by social stratification.
CC11	6	Sociological Thinkers I	Students will get an understanding of the thought process of western philosophers, as well as their theories and the contributions they made to sociology, through the course materials.

COURSE CODE	CREDITS	COURSE NAME	COURSE OUTCOME
CC12	6	Sociological Research Methods I	Students gain the ability to examine new things, conduct experiments, deal with scientific information, and get closer to the truth via the use of the research method, which helps students strengthen their reasoning skills.
CC13	6	Sociological Thinkers II	Students will gain an understanding of the thought process underlying Western philosophy, its foundational theories, the history and genesis of sociology as an academic discipline, and their astute elucidation of society through this course.
CC14	6	Sociological Research Methods II	Students are able to identify social phenomena and find solutions to social problems and difficulties via the use of scientific instruments, diagrams, and graphical presentations made possible by research methods. Students can learn how to plan for the future in a way that makes society better at this.
DSE1	6	Agrarian Sociology	Students can gain a deeper understanding of rural structures, the patterns of social relations that are dependent on agriculture, the economic structure, and the ways in which they can provide for themselves via the study of agrarian sociology.
DSE2	6	Environmental Sociology	Students can gain a better understanding of environmental movements and the interplay between civilization and the natural world via this unit. The influence of the environment on human culture and society, The significance of environmental concerns, potential threats, and strategies for biodiversity preservation.
DSE3	6	Indian Sociological Traditions	The suggested course will help students learn more about the intellectual history of Indian thought on Indian social system and structure.
DSE4	6	Project : Fieldwork and Dissertation	With the help of this study, students are able to improve their capabilities and acquire knowledge while also becoming more efficient in their job in the field.

COURSE CODE	CREDITS	COURSE NAME	COURSE OUTCOME
SEC1	2	Framing Questionnaire and Conducting Interview	The students will learn how to create questions for the purpose of data collecting, as well as the method of conducting interviews, during the course of this the lesson.
SEC2	2	Statistical Reasoning for Sociology	Students get the opportunity to learn how to comprehend and summarize raw data through the study of statistics.
GE1	6	Indian Society: Images and Realities	It allows students to have a better understanding of Indian society from a sociological perspective by providing a clear image of Indian society.
GE2	6	Gender and Violence	Students will be equipped with comprehensive knowledge regarding gender disparities, sexual assault, domestic violence, and other related topics throughout the course.
GE3	6	Sociology of Social Movements	The lengthy history of social movements, as well as their origins, ideas, and associated societal concerns, are the topics that are conveyed.
GE4	6	Population and Society	There are connections between the population and every aspect of society. Students are able to foresee the parallel link between the economy, society, and population if they have a solid grasp of marriages, reproduction or births, mortality or deaths, and migration.