RULES FOR GUIDANCE OF CANDIDATE

1. The examination will be held according to the programme previously notified.
2. The doors of the Examination Hall will be opened on the morning of the first day, one hour and in the afternoon and on other days, 15 minutes, before the time for commencement of the examination. The doors will be closed on each day 5 minutes before the commencement of the examination, after which no candidate will be admitted without the special permission of the Officer-in-charge. In no case will a candidate be admitted or given a question paper more than 30 minutes after the commencement of the examination. An examinee must complete Examination within time as specified in examination programme.
3. Candidates are required to find their own allotted seats. They shall take their seats at least 5 minutes before the commencement of the examination.
4. No candidate will be allowed to leave the Examination hall until an hour has elapsed from the time when the papers are given out. Except herein after provided no candidate will be allowed to reenter the Examination Hall during the hours of the examination after once leaving it, nor to leave the hall without giving up his/her answer paper.
A candidate may with the special permission of the Officer-in-charge leave the examination Hall temporarily for a necessary purpose but only under the surveillance of a trustworthy person to be deputed by the Officer-in-charge and under proper safeguards to render recourse to unfair practices impossible.
A candidate having completed his/her answer paper must hand it over, even if blank, to an Invigilator before leaving the examination Hall. The answer paper on no account will be left on the desk. No candidate will be allowed to remain in the Examination Hall after the close of the examination except to allow his/her answer-paper to be collected by the invigilator.
5. Candidates are required to provide themselves with their own pens, pencils, simple calculators and other necessary examination materials, i.e. dividers, compasses, a straight ruler showing centimeters and inches or other drawing implements for relevant subject. The University will supply stitched book and loose sheets to write the answers. On no account, should any paper be torn from the answer book.
6. Each candidate shall write on the cover of his/her answer book in appropriate columns only his/her University registration Number his/her Roll and Number (but not his/her name or the name of his/her college)
7. Candidates are forbidden to carry into the Examination Hall or have in their possession during the examination any books, notes, papers, writings, scribbling or other materials except their Admit Cards, University registration Receipts and any other written requisites or drawing implements. Any article carried to the Examination hall or found in the possession of a candidate in contravention of this rule shall be liable to be seized by the Officer-in-charge and the candidate shall be liable to expulsion.
8. A candidate while taking the examination shall not help or try to help any other candidate nor obtain or try to obtain any help from any other candidate or other person. Communication of any sort or in any form is strictly forbidden between a candidate and any other person whether inside or outside an Examination Hall.
Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly forbidden.
A candidate requiring an additional answer book or blotting paper or desiring permission to leave the room for a necessary purpose or desiring to give up his/her answer-paper may call the attention of the invigilator by rising in his/her seat and without making any noise or disturbance. On no account is a candidate permitted to speak to an invigilator on any matter with reference to any questions or answer.
9. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer-book, or attempt in any way to render identification of the answer-paper impossible by giving false rolls or numbers or intentionally omitting to state the correct rolls or numbers.
10. Candidates are required to produce their Admit Cards and Registration Receipts and to sign their names as and when directed by the Officer-in-charge.
11. Candidates are required to observe strictly the rules laid down by the University/College for the conduct of examination and the guidance of candidates a copy of which will be found pasted up at each Examination Centre.
12. Candidates are warned that any attempt to use any unfair means at the Examination, or any breach or attempted breach of any of these or other examination rules or any attempt to break discipline during or after the examination will render them liable to expulsion by the Officer-in-charge from the examination or any other part thereof and to such further penalties as the University/College may determine be reported against.
13. If during and/or after the examination it is found that candidate be violated all or any of the Rules and regulations governing the examinations, his/her examination is liable to canceled.
14. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the University/College Authority shall have the right, for any reason which may appear to be sufficient to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination, whether before, during or after the examination.
