Department of Bengali Report on Farewell Programme

Students of the 4th and 2nd semester of the Bengali department organized a farewell programme for the final semester (6th Semester) students of the Bengali department on 16.06.2022. Principal Dr. Ratan Kumar Samanta, along with other departmental teachers were present in this programme. All of them in their short speech inspired outgoing students to move towards higher education after graduation. Besides this, they were asked to participate in various competitive exams. Apart from education, they also advised students who are interested in any other field to pursue a career in that field.

Some final semester shared their three years of college experience with everyone. Some students share their future plans with everyone also. Final year students were gifted by 2nd and 4th semester students of the Bengali department.
