Outcome:

- Students learn about writing, layout design, and aesthetics through the process of creating a wall magazine.
- Wall magazines extend learning beyond the formal curriculum.
- Students engage in autonomous, non-academic activities that foster creativity and self-expression.
- By participating in wall magazine creation, students gain practical experience in the publishing industry.
- It prepares them for future roles in media, journalism, or creative writing.

Overall, wall magazines serve as a vibrant canvas for student voices, fostering creativity, collaboration, and skill development.
