Report on Sloka competition Programme

Department of Sanskrit

Swarnamoyee Jogendranath Mahavidyalaya

Date: 06/01/2023

The Sanskrit Department of our college organized a Sloka competition on 06/01/2023 at 11:00 A.M in Room No-1. The event aimed to promote the rich heritage of Sanskrit literature and cultivate interest among students in the traditional art of reciting Slokas.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty members of the Sanskrit Department. Participants showcased their proficiency in reciting Slokas with remarkable eloquence and devotion. The atmosphere was filled with reverence for the ancient language and its poetic verses.

In view of the competition, all classes of the Sanskrit Department were suspended for the day to encourage attendance and participation. The event not only provided a platform for students to display their talent but also fostered a sense of camaraderie among the participants.

Overall, the Sloka competition organized by the Sanskrit Department was a resounding success, reinforcing the cultural significance of Sanskrit and encouraging scholarly engagement among students and faculty alike
