Report

International Mother Language Day this year was organized on 21.02.2023 by the Department of Bengali in collaboration with the IQAC, NSS and the Cultural Sub-Committee. The programme began at 12 noon at Room no. 16 with the felicitation of the chief guests and the lighting of the ceremonial lamp. The Principal delivered the Welcome Address, which was followed by the Inaugural address by Dr Madhumita Basu, Head of the Department of Bengali. The International Mother Language Day was observed to commemorate the sacrifice of the Bengali language martyrs. On this historic occasion, the students delivered speeches on the importance of the mother language and the vernacular in a globalized world. They also recited Bengali poems and delivered speeches to underscore the beauty and importance of their native language. The President of the Governing Body and the founder of the college Dr Anindya Kishor Bhaumik, along with other members of the GB, graced the occasion and delivered lectures on the significance of this day. The other faculty members of the Bengali department, Dipankar Sarkar performed a radio play to commemorate this occasion.
