Objectives of the Course

The Sanskrit Grammar and Writing Skills course is specifically tailored for undergraduate students, particularly those pursuing Sanskrit Honours, to bolster their understanding of Sanskrit grammar and writing abilities. Many of these students, being first-generation college attendees, often lack a solid foundation in grammar, which consequently affects their writing proficiency. With this in mind, the course was meticulously crafted to address these challenges by revisiting fundamental grammar principles while also introducing advanced language skills to improve their overall communicative competence. The objectives of the course are as follows:

- Acquisition of fundamental Sanskrit vocabulary essential for day-to-day conversation and reading.
- Proficiency in foundational grammar rules such as noun declensions (including the different cases), verb conjugations (tenses, moods, voices), and sentence structure.
- Ability to read simple Sanskrit texts with understanding, including basic stories, poems, and philosophical texts.
- Capability to write simple sentences and short compositions in Sanskrit, focusing on correct grammar and usage.
