Spoken English

Free Online 30-hour Value-Added Course

Department of English in collaboration with the IQAC

Under the Skill Development Programme 2021-22

25 March to 14 May 2022

Course Outcomes

The ability to speak fluently in English continues to be an important workplace skill, while it is difficult for non-native speakers of the language with limited scope to acquire fluency. This course intends to provide undergraduate students the opportunity to improve upon their speaking skills, and in the process enhance their general fluency in the language, thus augmenting their employability. Training in pronunciation will be continuous, through all activities in the course.

At the completion of the course students will be able to:

- introduce themselves in a formal context
- talk comfortably about the past, present and future using simple constructions
- avoid common errors

Eligibility: Higher Secondary or equivalent

Format: Classes of 2-hour duration each will be held on Googlemeet. The joining link will be provided a few hours in advance via WhatsApp.

Course policies:

- The course is free. Course material will be provided free of cost. Suggested reading will be kept on reserve in the college library for students for the duration of the course.
- Students are required to arrange for their own connectivity, and a quiet environment at home, and students are encouraged to participate actively for their greatest benefit.
- Seats: 200. Registration on first-come-first-served basis. The class may be divided into sections depending on volume of registration.
- Training in pronunciation will be continuous. Assessment will be both formative and summative.
- 30 hours of classes and periodic revision, and beyond that, 2 hours devoted to revision.

Instructors:

Dr Durba Basu, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of English (Course Coordinator)

Ms Hiya Chatterjee, Assistant Professor, Department of English

Ms Swagatalakshmi Basu, State Aided College Teacher II, Department of English
