Report on Vidyasagar Bicentennial Lectures

24 September 2019

The college observed the 200th birth anniversary of Ishwarchandra Vidyasagar, doyen of the Bengal Renaissance, after whom our affiliating university is named, by organizing invited lectures. The two themes for the celebration that were recommended by Vidyasagar University were 'Vidyasagar and the Bengal Renaissance' and 'Vidyasagar's contribution to women's empowerment.' Dr Rangeet Sengupta, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of English, Khejuri College, and Dr Gautam Dandapat, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Bengali, Khejuri College were invited to deliver special lectures. Unfortunately, Dr Dandapat could not be present owing to a sudden illness. Dr Anindya Kisor Bhaumik, the founder and President of the Governing Body, graced the occasion with his presence, and presided over the event, and delivered a special address. Mr Sanjit Debnath, Teacher-in-Charge, and Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Sociology delivered a welcome address. Dr Rangeet Sengupta delivered an insightful lecture touching upon several aspects of Vidyasagar's contributions in the field of education, widow remarriage, and the development of Bengali language and literature. This was followed by a lively question and answer session. The lecture was attended by all faculty and students of the college.
